REPORT NO.

1. In Bandung there exists a loosely organized secret underground Communist group known as the Persatuan Guerrilla Indonesia (Indonesian Guerrilla Union) (PAGI). There are about 1,000 members, less than 100 of whom have arms. The PAGI is made up of a number of cell-units. Most PAGI members are youths who formerly served in the Bambu Runtjing, Surya Kentjana Battalion, or Tjitarum Brigade. At present the political policy of the Persatuan Guerrilla Indonesia is more anti-government rather than outspokenly pro-Communist.
2. The leader of this group is A.M. TAHIR, and his adjutant is Mohammed TACHIR.
3. A blazing sun is the insignia of the Persatuan Guerrilla Indonesia. This may be explained by the fact that in Indonesian "PAGI" means "morning" and hence is represented by a rising, shining sun.
